TANYA PETERSON

National Director of Client Engagement

BIOGRAPHY //

Tanya applies a whole new meaning to the phrase “customer service.” Her warm personality, people skills, and intellect provide more than just service to Flippen Group clients; she provides value that exceeds expectations.

In her 20 years at the Flippen Group, Tanya has served in various roles to systematically organize details and connect ideas. She works with staff to accomplish the company vision and leads a service team that coordinates hundreds of events nationwide, developing internal systems and processes for quality, growth, and client support and engagement.

Tanya received her bachelor’s degree in psychology from Texas A&M University. She is also a Zumba fitness instructor and brings her passion for organizing movement and events to several non-profit organizations.

She and her husband, Randy, live in Texas with their two teenage daughters. They are passionate about orphan care and helping make the lives of children better across the globe. They love to travel, explore, and most of all spend time together serving others.
